

Tung Le Nguyen Huy

Product Designer, Developer & AI Operator

With over 10 years in the UI/UX industry (and 5+ years in professional product companies), I specialize in web and mobile design. My journey began in 2012 through self-driven learning, later complemented by a solid foundation in programming from my university years.

This unique blend of design expertise and technical thinking allows me to research and adapt to new technologies rapidly, ensuring every product I design is fully optimized for the end-user.
